Summary

Hands-on product leader and ex-founder, 15 years in tech. I build B2B products from 0-to-1 and scale them — across strategy, UX, engineering and AI.

Experience

Co-founder & CPTO

Jul 2021 – Jun 2026

SustainSoft (medium leaver) — GreenTech SaaS

Remote

- Scaled from 0 to 100+ B2B customers; Techstars Paris '22 alumni
- Co-founded with 2 partners; shipped the first MVP in 6 months; raised a seed round and served as Board member
- Built and operated the B2B SaaS end-to-end: front-end, back-end, UX, AI, hosting, maintenance, deployment
- Owned product strategy and roadmap from ideation to MVP to production
- Defined product OKRs, then drove continuous discovery and prioritization with opportunity-solution trees — cut ~40% of planned scope
- Recruited and managed the developer team and freelancers

Head of Product

Jul 2017 – Jul 2021

Adot (acq. by Veepee) — AdTech SaaS

Paris, France

- Company scaled from 30 to 100+ employees (3 Scrum squads, ~15 people, led via PMs & POs) and revenue from €6M to €24M
- Strategy, definition and delivery of new products / M&A
- Presented and aligned internal teams and clients on the roadmap

Director of Analytics

Jun 2016 – Jun 2017

Altima (acq. by Accenture) — E-commerce & lead gen

New York City, United States

- Delivered conversion gains from -4% to +9%
- Led the conversion rate optimization (CRO) team for e-commerce and lead-gen interfaces
- Designed client proposals, ran audits, led optimization follow-up and communicated results

Account Manager

Sep 2013 – May 2016

MFG Labs (acq. by Havas) — Data & web agency

Paris, France

- Launched a corporate site, a recommendation algorithm, an e-commerce platform and a second-screen app
- Project management & internal / client coordination, sprint planning, standups, QA
- Defined, tracked and reported on product KPIs

Conversion Consultant

Jun 2012 – Sep 2013

Altima (acq. by Accenture) — E-commerce & lead gen

Paris, France

- Achieved conversion gains up to +19%
- CRO of interfaces through data analysis and UX
- Owned pre-sales through to client reporting (UX and results)
